It is 1928. The world is between wars, the stock market is booming, Berlin is the center of the high life, and optimism rules the day. However, underneath it all much is happening as we meet the Grand Hotel’s illustrious clients. Inspired by Vicki Baum’s period novel, issues of life and death, financial ruin, love and murder converge as people come and go through the lobby of the Grand Hotel.

Davis, Wright and Forrest’s multi-award winning musical will receive its Australian premier at Sydney Grammar School.

Tickets on sale from May 23

– either via TryBooking at https://www.trybooking.com/203596

Or

foms@sydgram.nsw.edu.au

June 16, 17, 20 and 21 – Alastair Mackerras Theatre – 6.30pm