Sydney Grammar School is a secular school for boys located on Hyde Park, in the City of Sydney. The School is currently seeking well-qualified and motivated candidates for the following positions:

Economics

We are looking for an Economics teacher for Term 1, 2017 to cover a long service leave period of absence. The role requires teaching both Years 11 and 12. The successful candidate will have strong academic qualifications and be prepared to contribute to the broader life of the School.

Mathematics

A position in our Mathematics Department will be available from the beginning of Term 4 this year, although it may be possible to defer the start until the beginning of 2017. The successful applicant will teach classes up to Extension 2 level and be keen to participate in the broader life of the School.

Modern Languages

We are seeking a German teacher (preferably with French and Italian) for a permanent, full-time position from Term 1, 2017. We welcome applications from qualified teachers of German, with the ability to teach Continuers and Extension courses.

Applications, including full cv with names and telephone numbers of three referees, should be sent, by Friday, 16 September 2016 to: The Headmaster, Sydney Grammar School, College Street, Darlinghurst 2010
